Sharing Our Faith

"In central Mecca, you stop when a children's game is in progress, he scotch of a kind. A child is jump're one-leggedly from square to square on the inner edge of a circle. A repeated jingle, 'Allah sees! You live!' sounds of for each faultless jump. But, 'Allah sees! You, nothing! Allah sees! You nothing! — for each fall outside to circle of reality."—Malachi Martin Intellectual Digest.

How characteristic of the faith Islam, taught in an age of harshne and violence by Mohammed! Fate chance is at the center of Moslem blief, with Allah—unlike the God realed in Christ—known for fantast promises and penalties. We are bless by a Christian confidence in t love and mercy of Him who gave I Son for our salvation.

Our thankfulness for this glad fair is best expressed among mankind sharing it with others. Be active evangelism. Give and pray for twerldwide mission that brings lig and hope to many we'll never s

The President's Report

y Dr. Clyde W. Meadows President, World's Union

This has been a great year (July 1, 972—June 30, 1973) in the blessings f the Lord, Christian Endeavor acvity, the amount of president's ravel, and the encouraging results. 1 the words of Samuel we can say, Hitherto hath the Lord helped us" [Samuel 7:12].

There were three major presidential purs during the year. The first of nese was to the islands of the Pacific, uly 27-August 22, 1972, including Hawaii, American and Western amoa, Tonga, Fiji and Tahiti, as wells Christian Endeavor contacts on ne west coast of the United States. In important feature of this tour as participation in the Sixth Area I conference in Pago Pago, American amoa, August 2-6. This brought toether over 1,200 people representing 5 countries.

The strength and influence of Christan Endeavor in the Samoan Islands amazing. It was publicly reported hat every village in American Samoa population about 35,000) and Westrn Samoa (population about 125,000) as a church and every church has christian Endeavor. The enthusiasm of the Samoan Christian Endeavorers as most inspiring.

From Samoa we visited the island f Tonga, which was an experience f a lifetime. This beautiful island is an independent kingdom with approximately 100,000 population. I was told that the vast majority of the people belong to the church and are active in the church. Most of the church members are members of Christian Endeavor or have been. Many rallies were held on the island, but the climax came in a rally of over 2,000 when a 500-voice choir sang the "Hallelujah Chorus."

From January 25 to February 18, 1973, I was on tour (19,000 miles) through Africa and Europe, including Senegal, Sierra Leone, Nigeria, Italy, and Germany. In Senegal I met with Christian leaders at Dakar. At Bumpe via Bo, Sierra Leone, I participated in the 10th annual convention of the Sierra Leone Christian Endeavor Union. At Mattru Jong I met with the doctors and nurses and visited patients of the hospital, and spoke for the students and faculty (about 400) of the Centennial Secondary School. At Freetown I shared in a youth rally and spoke for the Sierra Leone Bible College.

From February 2 to 12 I was deep in the bush country of South Eastern State, Nigeria, about 120 miles south and east of Port Harcourt, the area where thousands perished during the war of 1967-70. Each day I spoke two or three times to crowds of people (100-150) in various villages. They came together in temporary mud chapels (churches were destroyed during the war) at the call of an improvised bell made from the rim of a truck wheel or some such instrument hung in a tree. They are a happy and friendly people, but hungry for the Gospel.

The Nigerian Christian Endeavor Union which was formed in the last year, guided by correspondence and confirmed while I was there in conferences with the officers and leaders, binds together seven independent denominations representing over 55,000 members from South Eastern State and East Central State. The languages spoken are Efik and Ibo. Christian Endeavor has become the uniting link across denominational, state, tribal and language lines.

They need help to rebuild their churches destroyed during the war. The ministers need bicycles, the most practical means of transportation. The Nigerian Union has established a secondary school (about 250 pupils) principally for training their ministers and primary teachers, and that needs help financially for scholarships, building, typewriters, and other sup-There are no missionaries among these people. The work is carried on entirely under the leadership of native pastors and laymen. I did not see a white person during the ten days I was in the area. These people are to be congratulated on what they have done and are doing. They deserve our prayers, good will, and support.

From Africa I went to Rome where I was the guest of the Waldensian Seminary. I met with Waldensian leaders and the president of the Methodist Church and had friendly conversations concerning Christian Endeavor. They informed me that the Baptists and Pentecostals cooperate in certain Protestant projects. I suggested to them that Christian Endeavor could help them in their friendly cooperation. I also spent time in Germany consulting with the Christian Endeavor leaders there and meeting with the local committee for the Essen Convention in 1974.

April 9-23, 1973, the president hosted an International Society tour of the Bible lands, stopping over in Switzerland, Greece, Cyprus, Egypt Lebanon, Syria, and Israel. Christian Endeavor not only came alive for the tour party of 43, but wonderful fellowship was experienced with Endeavorers along the way, especially in Egypt. A very inspiring rally and reception were held in Cairo. The tour served Christian Endeavor in the various countries visited, but at no expense to the World's Union.

The day-by-day record of the president shows that I traveled during the year 122,867 miles (mostly for Christian Endeavor) in 19 countries, delivered 436 sermons and addresses (245 for Christian Endeavor), held 15 evangelistic crusades, and witnesses 885 commitments to Christ. In the work of Christian Endeavor 748 letters were written, and in addition to the office work done at home, 44 days were spent at the Columbus Headquarters and 68 days on tours and in the field, making a total of 112 days.

Since the reporting year ended June 30, 1973, the president; the general secretary, Rev. Charles W. Barn er; the treasurer, Phyllis I. Rike; the finance chairman, Arch J. McQuilkin along with other interested persons made a trip to Europe (September 21 October 6) to share in Christian En deavor meetings in London; the Ares II conference, the Trustees' annua meeting, and many committee ses sions at St. Chrischona, Basel, Switz erland; and conferences with German leaders in Kassel and Essen. Ger many, in preparation for the 17th World's Convention in Essen nex year.

Area II General Secretary's Report

By William J. Sharpe

In December 1972 I spent ten days in Egypt, carrying through a very full program arranged by Dr. Fareed Mangarious, president of the union. My engagements included six services on the two Sundays, four evening sessions, and two conferences. Two main rallies, at which attendance was 2,000 and 1,000 respectively, were shared with the Rev. Arno Pagel. Jointly we visited the site of the proposed Christian Endeavor center in El Giza and we traveled together on a visit to Assiut. It was also a delight to me to visit the orphanage in Cairo, largely maintained by the Egyptian Union.

The Egyptian Endeavorers have very recently been visited by a young group from England, under the leadership of the Rev. George Bowden.

It was in our thinking to arrange a visit this year to Norway. A meeting of the chairman, treasurer, and secretary, held in London, discussed this matter fully in the light of the situation of Christian Endeavor in Norway and of bringing the maximum help to the Endeavorers there; whether (a) a personal visit would achieve that, or (b) by an Area Conference and a series of meetings we could give encouragement and practical help to Norwegian leaders. The las such visit was in 1956.

New Contacts

Following the exchange of correspondence between British Christian Endeavor Headquarters and Finland I have been in touch with the yout secretary of the Lutheran Church in Helsinki, suggesting that Christian Endeavor be considered as a movement for the young people of their church.

There has been a growing plea by Christian Endeavor groups in the north of India for topic material however old, to help them in their preparation for the weekly devotion al meetings. An appeal was mad through the British magazine AD VANCE and I have been able to senout a number of parcels.

After some difficulty the appoint ment has now been made of a sec ond travelling secretary to the India Union. He is the Rev. Thilaha Dhas B.A., B.D.

France

The movement is almost non-exexistent in France, but with the Are II chairman, Alan J. Ramsay, we are hoping to make contact with the two Protestant centers in the Pas de Calais area. There are centers at Couriers, Donai, Billy Bachlew, and Car n; the chairman has preached at these centers and is well known ere. We hope to begin to organize ne Christian Endeavor work again needy France. Literature in the guage of the country is vital if we to make progress.

Belgium

After leaving St. Chrischona in ptember 1973 the Area II chairn and I visited members of the angelical Church in Cologne and n went on to La Hestre in Belgium pay a call on the Rev. and Mrs. browolski, who are working among young people of the district. A ristian Endeavor Society has been med, the members being assiduous Bible study and in the distribun of Bible literature. Talk centered bund the coming World's Conition to be held in Essen and plans take a group of young people to se meetings. A difficulty, however, l be that of language, for only ench is spoken and understood. ere is a desperate need for Chrisn Endeavor literature in the ench language, for not only are re greater possibilities in Belgium, also in France in the areas earmentioned. We agreed to have Junior leaflet published in French.

Spain and Portugal

We are disappointed that no repretatives from either country came the Area II meetings at St. Chrisna. Although greater freedom for testants is now enjoyed, we are making the headway we ought. e difficulties are many, but we be to arouse some interest through Rev. Stuart Brown of the Span-Gospel Mission, and also with the ners' Mission Center near Oporto. re again, literature in the two guages is essential.

Italy

The chairman and secretary have been in personal touch with live Independent Baptist Churches in Ligurra. Young people from some of these churches have been guests in the chairman's home in England and have seen the benefits of Christian Endeavor work.

This year the chairman and secretary have together visited churches in the area and have had discussions with the Superintendent Baptist Minister, who is responsible for the churches in Genoa, Sestri Livante, Rapallo, Savonna, Albisola, and Varetse. At the invitation of the Rev. Santille we met in his home the leader of the youth work in the Central Church. She is a university undergraduate who has energy, vision, and zeal for work among young people. She covers, by car, a 95 mile range of the churches concerned. Speaking English, she has this year had further contacts with Endeavorers who visited the city of Genoa in connection with Operation Mobilization. Again, we need to produce some Christian Endeavor literature in Italian if we are not to be solely dependent upon those who speak English.

GERMAN ENDEAVORERS in front of 1221 East Broad Street, Columbus, Ohio, U.S.A., are Dr. and Mrs. Gerhard Bonarius from Giessen, who visited the Headquarters this summer.

ESSEN PREPARES

17TH WORLD'S CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION

JULY 24-28, 1.974, ESSEN, GERMANY

Acts 9:11: "The Lord said unto him, Arise, and go . . . and inquire . . . for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth."

THE PRAYER CALL

When Paul had been converted to Christ we find him soon in that spiritual activity which was essential for him in all the time of his service: "Behold, he prayeth." For the great event of the 17th World's Convention we need many beople all over the world who will engage in faithful prayer for blessed results: 'Behold, they pray."

A Suggested Daily Prayer

Dur God and Father, we thank Thee that Thou hast given us in Jesus Christ Lord and Saviour who is today and forever. Help us to proclaim this with bower and joyful assurance in Essen and throughout the world. Let our hearts leither be fascinated nor frightened by men, movements, and ideologies hat are coming and going. To Thee alone is the Kingdom forever. Amen.

Special Prayer Requests

Please pray:

- —that everyone who is engaged in the preparation of the convention will give his best to the glory of the Lord.
- —that the spirit of God will enable and empower all the convention leaders and make the messages, music, witnessing, and counseling a source of real spiritual help.
- —that many may respond to the call of Christ for conversion, consecration, and service.
- —that all the delegates traveling from so many parts of the world may be led safely by the Good Hand of the Almighty.

FOOK WALL LITTE MUSS.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO HELP

By Dr. LaVerne H. Boss, President
International Society of Christian Endeavor

In another month we will stand upon the threshold of a new year. This is a good time to reflect on Christian Endeavor at the International Society level. As we look about we quickly realize that we did not accomplish all we had hoped. The pile of work remains on the various isks, some correspondence is still unanswered, requests for "in the field" rk by state and provincial unions remain unfilled, new materials need be edited, old pamphlets and books should be rewritten—the things to do it the challenges of the movement are endless.

The other day I heard someone say, "I wish we had longer days or more ends to do everything that needs to be done." Maybe our answer to the teat need is basically more hands. Many of you have given in a financial by and have prayed daily that Christian Endeavor might be an instruent in God's hand to win young people to a personal relationship to Jesus terist and a tool to train them for service in their local church and committy.

Today I ask: What have you personally done? Look around. Does the circh down the street have a youth program? Is it as successful as the cuth program you remember when you were a member of Christian Encayor? If not, can you be the one to visit the minister and/or a member the Christian Education Committee of the local church? Maybe you all arrange a meeting with the youth and their leaders to explain how peristian Endeavor works. Describe the basic principles and the philosophy of Christian Endeavor. Show them the various materials that are available.

Records at Headquarters indicate that when the movement grew at a pid pace in the late 1800's and the early 1900's, it was because leaders ared their ideas, programs, and successes with each other. There is an normous reservoir of knowledge and experience stored up in those who have town up in Christian Endeavor.

Why don't you turn the spigot of this reservoir of information, committent and conviction you have regarding Christian Endeavor to a full flow sition. If you share what you know with others it will aid youth, help aders and sponsors, and strengthen the cause of Christ.

Will you HELP? Christian Endeavor is an avenue of great opportunity. Ilk to young people. Confer with the pastor. Call a group of ministers gether. 1221 East Broad Street, Columbus, Ohio 43216, has free organing kits and related material ready for you.
